LIKE YOU NEEDED MORE EXCUSES TO SHOP

IN A COSMOPOLITAN CITY like Vancouver it's not surprising that the neighbourhoods and shopping districts are so diverse. Beginning with Gastown, the city's first neighbourhood, you'll find cobblestone streets, souvenir shops, funky boutiques, and restaurants galore. Head a little further east and you'll step into the cultural oasis that is Chinatown. Stroll through Yaletown, South Granville, or along Robson Street and you'll discover an endless variety of retail stores, haute couture boutiques, beauty bars, and gift shops.

SAVOUR EVERY MOMENT IN VANCOUVER

A FOODIE'S HAVEN, Vancouver will satisfy your hunger for West Coast flavour and innovative international cuisine. From food trucks to fine dining, global tastes are well represented, but the star of this oceanside culinary scene is some of the world's best seafood.

FEEL THE PULSE

YOU DON'T HAVE to look far for entertainment in Vancouver. Art enthusiasts, music lovers, and theatre buffs alike can look forward to a strong arts and culture lineup all year long.

Some of many highlights include the annual Bard on the Beach Shakespeare Festival, the contemporary and historical collections featured at the Vancouver Art Gallery, and several music-inspired festivals.

For those who can't decide what to do, head to the Vancouver Lookout and take in the entire city all at once with unbeatable 360-degree views.

VANCOUVER IS JUST THE BEGINNING

IN A CITY AS VIBRANT as Vancouver it's easy to forget about all there is to see and do just beyond its limits.

In less than an hour you could be experiencing Howe Sound from all-new heights – or travel a little further by car, ferry, or plane, and discover the instant charm of places like Whistler, the Canadian Rockies, and the rugged west coast of Vancouver Island.
